The meeting was called to order at 3:50 p.m. by Commander Col. Krahenbuhl at the Cooper County Fire Protection HQ in Booneville, Missouri. There were thirteen colonels and guests in attendance, which constituted a quorum.

Introductions of guests and new colonels were made.

Winning names were pulled: 1st Mary Dooley, 2nd Craig Mathews, and 3rd Andy Miedler. The Commander said that all therapeutic riding clubs were investigated. The list was winnowed down and their names were placed in a hat for drawing. The winner was Missouri Forget Me Not Horse Rescue and Sanctuary, Linn Creek. The Commander will get a large check printed for a photo opportunity with him and Col. Talbot.

It was moved and seconded that we dispense with the reading of the March 16, 2024, minutes. The motion was approved.

Col. Johnson gave his treasurer's report. A motion was made and seconded to approve the treasurer's report, subject to financial to review, and pay bills. Passed.

Commander Krahenbuhl discussed our next fundraising effort. We agreed that a bourbon raffle would work again, but we will need better advertising. We will send a certificate of appreciation to Col. Lee and Sharon Mueller's son for his work on the raffle.

Our next meeting will be on September 14, with a guest speaker from HOKC HQ. Suggested locations are the Shriner's Temple or Jefferson Barracks in St. Louis. Member should bring one or more bottles of bourbon for the raffle.

Plans are to have a holiday gathering and election of 2025 officers on November 30, location TBD.

All business being completed, the meeting was adjourned at 4:10 p.m. and members enjoyed plentiful food (arranged for by D. J. Talbot) and an exciting end to the running of the 150th Kentucky Derby.
